Charlottesville, Va., January 31.—

The question of purchasing a new pipe organ for the Christian Church, of this city, was brought up for consideration some weeks ago, at the suggestion of Dr. Willis, president of the Virginia Christian College, at Lynchburg, who is at present filling the local puipit. Dr. Willis opened negotiations with Andrew Carnegle, asking Mr. Carnegle to donate one-half of the cost of a $2,000 instrument. Dr. Willis has received a letter from James Bertram. Mr. Carnegie's secretary, saying he would be pleased to grant the request. A committee of five has been appointed to look into the matter of selecting an organ, and it is believed that the instrument will be installed in the course of three or four months.
